LAD Board of Directors Meeting

February 5, 1983 at Anthony

Mowad's house in

Oakdale, Louisiana

President Mowad ordered the meeting to come at 1:05 p.m. with Medford Magill, Max Ray, Delvin Fontenot, Joe Sarpy, Joe Broussard and Robert Sheffield. Joe Benedetto are unable to come due to the plan he had already made.

President's report: Thank Joe Broussard and Medford Magill for their fine work on the workshop in Opelousa related to the LAD affiliate and chapter.

Vice President Magill reported on the LAD = organization affiliates workshop, thank to Joe Broussard for dedicating his time and are proud of him. He asked us if we should have another workshop on May 7th, it will depend on the responses of the participants.

Robert Sheffield read the last minutes of the Homecoming Day meeting and were accepted as read.

Chairman Delvin Fontenot reported on the LAD/Class Reunion Program book, questioned about who will print them. Medford suggested that he will contact the Hertiage Printing Co. and will report back to Delvin Fontenot.

Robert Sheffield reported on the letter from NAD President Hurwitz stated that he could not accept our invitation to the LAD convention because he will be out of United States of America and will tour Europe. He informed us that as a rule it is the President Elect's duty to refer who to send for speaking at state association.
